

Information for Continuing Education Credit

The Hawai'i State Center for Nursing is accredited as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

The Hawaii State Center for Nursing designates this activity for a maximum of 1.0 contact hours.

Activity Overview:

Activity Name: Building Recovery & Compassion without Fatigue

Activity Date: Enduring Activity Expires 12/31/2025
Original Recording Date: February 14, 2023

Activity Description: This discussion is an invitation for caregivers to pause and reconnect with themselves. It offers time for each participant to reflect on their own experiences and stories to take the invisible challenges of healthcare and make them visible. It will also offer a path that uses theory-guided practices that both honor these experiences and offer new ways of thinking and being that contribute to their own wholeness so they can continue to heal others.

Activity Type: Enduring
Activity Location: Online
